

Third Edition November 2009

Lewes Constituency Conservative Association

News In Brief

Jason Sugarman Conservative parliamentary candidate for the Lewes constituency attended the 'we'll meet again commemorative dinner' held at the Imperial War Museum in London on Saturday 10th October after receiving a personal invitation from Dame Vera Lynn.

The charity dinner was in aid of 'The Dame Vera Lynn Trust for children with Cerebral Palsy' the trust was set up in January 2001 to raise funds for the 'School for parents'.

The school is a support service leading the way in conductive education for pre-school children with cerebral palsy and currently supporting around 60 families. The aim of the school is to work in partnership with the parent to educate the young child with cerebral palsy or associated motor learning difficulties and allied learning needs.

The charity dinner raised over £100,000 in one evening which went towards their goal of £450,000, which the charity has to raise each year to be able to provide this service. The Trust receives no statutory funding and without the generosity of individuals, companies and charitable trusts the school could not exist'.

Jason Sugarman said 'it is a privilege to be able to help Dame Vera Lynn and support such a worthwhile cause; I know the funds raised tonight will make a difference to a lot of families'.

Out And About With Jason In October & November

It's been an exciting couple of months for Jason he has been busier than ever doorstep canvassing in Seaford, Newhaven and Wilvesfield as well as attending various events across the constituency. We have had a number of firsts; an Open Day held at a Newhaven shop and an Open question time event in Seaford, both were very successful. Thank you to both committees, who have been working hard to make a real difference.

Jason also attended the CPF dinner on the 19th November where Mike Weatherly Conservative parliamentary candidate for Brighton and Portslade was the guest speaker and Jason was kindly invited to Cris and Janey Kinrade's home in Chailey for a drinks evening with over 30 local activists.

Whilst all this has taken place Jason has been heavily involved in a local Lewes trial with his work as a barrister, the trial continues throughout December.

As usual below is a brief photographic account for you to view. There are also a number of different stories that appear on Jason's website so please take a closer look: <http://www.jasonsugarman.org.uk>

Jason is interviewed on BBC Southern Counties Radio

I'm sure that most of you read Jason's report from the party conference, but did you know he was then interviewed live on the radio; you can listen to the interview by ctrl +click the below link, his interview starts at round 38 minutes into the programme.

http://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/p004lmy6/Sussex_Drivetime_with_Sarah_Gorrell_08_10_2009/

In Newhaven at West Quay

Reviewing Councillor Roberston work at Augustfields

*Meeting with local shopkeepers Vicky and Megan
Jones of Haven Bakery, Newhaven*

Out door to door campaigning in Seaford

Meeting local Seaford resident Maxine Birch

Meeting young supporters Zara Ambrose and Bo Conley

Supporting Seaford scout group

*Attending the Seaford Means Business Exhibition
Pictured with local solicitor David de Mallet Morgan*

Meeting one of the event organisers Roger Blackman from Seaford Chamber of Commerce.

Attending the cheque presentation of Seaford Live a yearly charity event which raised over £3500 for local Seaford charities.

Hosting Seaford's Open Questions Event, members of the public were invited to attend and pose questions to Jason and the panel.

Talking to local residents at Newhaven's Open Day held at a shop just off the High street.

Talking to a local business man in Newhaven.

Attending the Ringmer lunch held at the Wellingham.

December Scheduled Events For Jason Sugarman

Wednesday 2nd December- Ditchling activists evening meeting at the Bull in Ditchling.

Friday 4th December- Seaford Late night shopping evening and the guest speaker for Seaford's Christmas dinner.

Wednesday 9th December- `Lewes Tomorrow' A public meeting with open discussion about local issues: planning, Litter, Parking, flood defences and Traffic concerns.

Thursday 10th December- Chairman's Christmas Concert at Great Ote Hall.

Monday 14th December-15th Activists meeting in local pub venue to be confirmed

Tuesday 15th December- Activists meeting in local pub venue to be confirmed

Sunday 20th December- Seaford's Talent Show at Constitutional Club.

Jason is keen to attend as many events as possible, so please contact Kirsty Fenton 07789 795461 email: kirsty.fenton3@btinternet.com with any upcoming events in your area.

Don't forget if you would like Jason to attend your AGM in the New Year please Contact Kirsty Fenton.

I would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a prosperous 2010. I look forward to talking to you all, with more exciting events for the new year.

Best Wishes

Kirsty